

New aid for researchers. These BiogBookmarks © history4u.info April 2003. Although copyrighted to us these have been devised as a freely downloadable reading research aid (NOT for commercial use without recourse to callhistory4u@blueyonder.co.uk). The BiogBookmark © provides basic information on the person you're researching in a bookmark format easily to hand. Also when the book has been read they can be kept as a convenient source reference compiling research citations. TO USE: Download, print onto paper or card. Trim to size. Add in the space provided details of the person you're researching. Add in the upper section the book details and note page or other info noted during the course of reading. Remove from book and file with your research notes.
